Home – School – Child Agreement

At Totley we want to achieve the best for your child and hope that you will work with us to ensure their success. This agreement is for all to sign to pledge our commitment to this common aim.

In addition to the statement contained within this document, we would like to make clear our commitment to provide your child with a first class education irrespective of their ability, race, sex or faith.

We are committed to ensuring that they feel safe, secure and valued at school and are free from threat and bullying. We have policies within school explaining our stance on these issues. Please ask to see them at any time.
