Dear Children,

To celebrate the opening of our brand new school library and to share our excitement of having a whole host of new books to read, the Burbage house (the blue house) are holding a sponsored read beginning the Friday 9th of November until Friday the 16th of November for the whole school to raise funds for their chosen charity: Books2Africa.

<https://books2africa.org>

The money you raise will go towards paying for the postage and packaging of our old library books - which we have had much enjoyment from but no longer need - to be donated to charity. The Books2Africa charity will rehome our old books to schools and children throughout Africa, who have a limited amount of books. We have chosen this charity because we feel fortunate to have so many books to enjoy, want to help reduce waste and wish to share our love for reading with others.

Attached is a sponsorship sheet for you to collect as many sponsors as possible from now until the final day, and a reading log. Once the sponsored read week is over, you will need to collect your sponsorship money, and we will accept it on Friday 16th of November. We will announce in the following assembly how much we have raised and how many boxes of books are on their way to Africa.

So finally, we challenge you to read as many books as possible for one week, starting on Friday the 9th of November to Friday the 16th of November and to find heaps of friends and family to sponsor you.

Good luck and happy reading!

Alice Biggin and Henry Barlow
