Dear Parent/Guardian,

Singing is a fantastic way to build confidence, develop a skill and progress towards goals through performances and/or exams. I studied Music at Sheffield University, graduating with a First Class Degree, have been performing since I was very young and songwriting since I was 16. I am accredited by Sheffield Music Hub and my singing teacher training is continuous, taking courses from experts in their field when possible throughout the year. As vocal development never stops, I currently take lessons of my own from expert Vocal Coach, Chris Johnson.

At Totley Primary I teach Musical Theatre and Pop/Jazz Vocals to all year groups and abilities, from beginner to advanced. Last term 100% of my students received Distinctions in their Graded exams (though mostly down to their hard work, of course!) and I provide opportunities to perform at showcase events also for friends and family. I also teach at King Egbert's for those students moving here from Totley, so pupils could remain learning with me as they transition if they want to.

My lessons are held in school hours on a rotating timetable as to avoid missing the same school subjects. Singing lessons are 20 or 30 minutes long at £10 or £15 each and I invoice at the start of each half-term.

If you have any questions or you and/or your child would like to meet me to see if we get on, please get in touch.

Looking forward to hearing from you.
